

Surface Area

The surface area of a three-dimensional figure is the sum of the areas of all its outer faces, measured in square units.

Example 1 A tennis ball has a diameter of 67 mm. A cylindrical container holds three stacked tennis balls. Determine the amount of material required for the container to the nearest square centimetre.

Example 2 Find the surface area of the following prism.

